Makischal College Fkoh 1680 To 1740. Immediately after the Restoration, the Soots Parliament passed an important Act dealing with Marischal College. On the 20th March, 1661, it confirmed the earl s charter and further of new Gives and dispones to the said Culledga Masters and members thairof all freedoms liberties priveledges and jurisdiction that to any frie Colledge within this Realme be law and practick is known to apperteane. This Act has a bearing upon a question which, as we shall see, led to a lawsuit--the dispute as to the scope of the Marischal College charter. The next twenty years have nothing of interest to record. The Revolution had as little effect upon the University as the Restoration. All the members seem to have taken the oath of allegiance. The Principal at the time was Robert Paterson, who had been appointed in 1679. Before then, he had been a regent. The legislation of the Commission of 1690 has already been detailed, and needs no. further notice. We possess, however, one of the documents sent by Marischal College to that body, giving an account of the curriculum of that date. It is interesting to compare it with the account of studies given in 1647. (1) The first year students are instructed in Philologie, Hebrew, Greek, and Latine, and the principles of Arithmetick; and when they have made some progress in those languages, towards the middle of the year, they declaims and make...
