Excerpt: . . . 13 Taskforce, which would allow the Executive Branch sufficient flexi-bility to work within the laws framework to handle new and emerging threats. These changes included in the legislation should improve secu-rity while decreasing the cost of FISMA compliance across the gov-ernment. FEDERAL PROCUREMENT Section 253 of the bill requires the DHS Secretary, in collabora-tion with other federal agencies and the private sector, to develop, update, and implement a supply chain risk management strategy to ensure the security of the communications and information tech-nology products and services purchased by the federal government. It then directs the Federal Acquisition Regulatory Council (FAR Council) to use its existing authority over federal government pro-curements to implement the strategy, in much the same way as ef-forts already under way at the Department of Defense and DHS as part of Initiative 11 of the Comprehensive National Cybersecurity Initiative (CNCI). Homeland Security Presidential...
