Excerpt: . . . 0. 5 need to submit decommissioning plans or perform complex remedial activities to decommission their facilities in accordance with NRCs criteria. However, some licensees would need to submit some information regarding either the status of their facilities when they requested license termination, or the activities that they intended to use to remediate their facility. The types of information that would be required could range from very simple descriptions of the radiological status of the facilities and the disposition of radioactive material possessed by the licensees to, in the case of licensees that proposed license termination under restricted conditions, very detailed descriptions of institutional controls, dose estimates to potential future critical groups, and arrangements to ensure that adequate financial assurance mechanisms were in place at license termination. Based on the above, staff determined that the best approach would be to develop detailed descriptions of the types of information that could...
