E2 2009n OCLC Number: (OCoLC)613333786 Subject: Predatory lending -- United States. Excerpt: . . . 11 Each of our proposals, including the provision related to the Marine Mammal Protection Act, are Limited to Military Readiness Activities. Our initiatives have been portrayed by some as attempting to exempt and grant special reprieve to DoD from environmental statutes, give the Department of Defense a blanket exemption to ignore our laws, and violate the principle that no government agency should be above the law. In reality, our initiative would apply only to military readiness activities. We believe we must recognize the militarys unique duty to prepare for and win armed conflicts - unlike any private organization, State, or local government. The requested changes are therefore narrowly focused on military readiness activities - those actions necessary to discharge that duty. They will not affect DoDs compliance with environmental laws in the management of its infrastructure or industrial operations that are similar to those of private companies. We Do Not Seek Exemptions from Environmental Law. Our initiative does not seek to exempt even our readiness activities from the environmental laws. Rather, it clarifies and confirms existing regulatory policies that recognize the unique nature of our activities. As for the Marine Mammal Protection Act, our proposal would codify the Clinton Administrations proposed policy on harassment, which I will address further later in my testimony. We Remain Committed to Environmental Compliance. There has been concern expressed that the proposed legislation foreshadowed a DoD retreat from its environmental responsibilities. DoD has no intentions of backing away from our environmental stewardship responsibilities. We remain fully committed. What we do seek...
