

Margaret Sweet Margaret, Mermaid of the Sea Poems About Fantasy and Other Realities

By Sherry Eubank

Outskirts Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 30 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.3in. Margaret, Sweet Margaret, Mermaid of the Sea is dedicated to the life of Margaret Dyches Viles. Even though her family and friends will appreciate this book, it was written with the intent that everyone might enjoy her life. The poems of this book are written so that anyone can relate to them, young or old. The poetry language was purposely written in an uncomplicated and simple fashion for the benefit of all readers. Even though the poems are easy to understand, don't let that fool you because their meanings run deep. In order for one to fully understand this book readers need to know something about the life of Margaret. Margaret Dyches Viles was born August 27, 1937 in Augusta, Georgia to Laura and Marshall Dyches. She was the second child in a family of three girls. The way the author, Sherry Eubank remembers her, Margaret was a free spirit who was more different than anyone else. Some of the fondest memories Sherry has was whenever she and her younger sister Holly visited their Aunt Margaret in South Carolina. In the mornings, around eight o'clock and...
