Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Bible Book of Revelation tells a story that has two endings. One is of survival; the other is of salvation for those who do not follow the Beast; Islam, and accept his mark. One ending is for those who remain on earth. The other is for those who are resurrected through the Word of God. But, there are many codes to understand before these stories reveal themselves. The first Revelation code is broken by uncovering the concept that the first woman described in Revelation; in pain with a child to be delivered, was Christianity. She was identified as Christianity when in 350 A.D. Constantine the Great (two wings of a great eagle) protected her, then formed the Roman Catholic Church. That protection ended after another 350 years. That s when the Islamic religion was founded from Muhammad s teachings. Muhammad began slaughtering Christians and others under the guise of killing only for the purpose of defense. History proves Muhammad murdered many by self-initiation to fulfill his prophesies of having a world where only Muslims would exist. He called himself a prophet, taking the place of Christ; and his followers believed him and supported him. They still do. That s the purest definition of an antichrist. Antichrist means to take the place of Christ; not one against Christ. This concept is further verified by the fact that Muhammad suffered a mortal head injury from which he recovered. This was prophesied in Revelation 700 years before it happened, to describe the coming Beast. Once this code is understood, other codes are more easily deciphered. The next important code is in Chapter 17. The Islamic religion is clearly revealed in...
