Excerpt: .is never the same three weeks together, -- excite the merriment of the children, and the pity of the musician; and yet this choir is to assist in public worship! Far better have one good singer, or a whole house full of bad ones. Upon these points we believe some change is needful, and will ere long be called for; and also upon many others connected with public worship; among which is the present necessity put on clergymen of preachin two new sermons every week. This is what no man shoud do, and particularly no Unitarian, for he cannot, like the orthodox, dwell month after month and year after year upon the few points of depravity, election, salvation, damnation, c.: he must, from his creed, be ever intellectually at work. On this account, more than any other, do Unitarian ministers become weak and broken down...
